

WINDOW WALL: SCHOOL IN LONDON, S.W.5
DESIGNED BY CHAMBERLIN, POWELL AND BON

The horizontally-sliding windows are framed in aluminium; the lower row are in Georgian wired glass and the ventilators over are top-hung, opening outwards. The stanchions to which the mullions are fixed are welded to base plates sunk into pockets provided in the concrete sill and each base plate is secured by two ragbolts.

